of 1955

Maria High School

California Avenue
at Marquette Road
Chicago, Illinois
Conducted by the Sisters of St. Casimir

Seniors take their first major step toward the future in receiving class rings – symbols of unending loyalty to Maria High.

Graduate's Prayer

Dearest Mary,

Through my four years at Maria, I have repeatedly turned to you for guidance and help, and you, like the kind loving Mother you are, have never deserted me. Now, I have reached the time when I must walk out from under your protecting mantle, never to return again to Maria as a student.

I remember that first day at St. Casimir Academy almost four years ago. How lost and frightened I felt starting my high school career, but I needn't have worried, dear Lady, for you were there all the time.

Many times I visited S.C.A.'s Chapel, seeking your comfort and aid. Sometimes it was an algebra test and other times just a need for a little reassurance.

That first year sped by and then into Maria. How thrilling it was to attend this new, beautiful school named in your honor, dearest Mother.

The newness of the building soon wore off and the warmth and goodness of your Immaculate Heart began to radiate throughout the school. It was a year filled with beginnings of traditions that will live on and grow with time.

Junior year, a fullfillment of every students dream to become an upper classman, was no disappointment either. It was a gay year filled to capacity with activities, and also the Marian Year, a year dedicated to you, dear Mary.

The years at Maria were filled with so much happiness that they flew by leaving only fleeting memories of joy.

My senior year, so long awaited and yet so sadly dreaded, was much more wonderful than I even anticipated. My fondest memory is Ring Day, the day my classmates and I gathered together in the Chapel to receive a ring that stands as a symbol of all my years of Catholic training and that I will always wear with pride and dignity, never allowing it to be tarnished by an action that will be unworthy of you and your Son.

The reception of my diploma terminates my high school life. I will go out into a world that can sometimes be cold and cruel. I will be expected to act as an adult, but how much at this time, do I feel not like an adult but a very small, lost child who would love to run to you for protection.

Uncertainty fills my every thought. Am I choosing the right vocation? Will I make a success of my chosen field?

Questions, dear Mary, that will only be answered by time, time that your beloved Son desires to bestow on me. Through all my life I must remember this and be ready when your Son chooses to call me.

I will be more susceptible to temptation away from the protecting arms of Maria and the guidance of the Sisters, but I must strengthen myself and follow you, dearest Mother, to an eternity of happiness with your Son.

How thoughtful it was of our Lord to give you, his divine Mother, as a model and guide for every Catholic girl, you who alone were born without original sin and were chosen above all women to be the Mother of the Divine Savior. With this knowledge in hand, I cannot help but step forth bravely and strive for a little of the perfection that so predominantly ruled your life.

My faith, the greatest of gifts that your Son has graciously bestowed on me, I am confident, will guide me through the temptations and difficulties of life and lead me straight to your loving arms.

I must also at this time remember my parents who first instilled the seed of faith in me as a small child and the Sisters and Priests who through the years nurtured this seed and let it blossom into full magnitude. Without them, this day would never have dawned for me, and my commencement, a beginning not an end, of a tremendous future, filled with opportunities to help myself and my fellow mankind to reach their eternal goal would never have been realized.

Dearest Blessed Mother, remain a part of my cherished memories always.

Our school seal incorporates a crown, lily and sword superimposed on a circular field which symbolizes eternity. The gold crown represents the Christian ideals to which the student constantly aspires. The lily represents Our Lady's purity which each student strives to realize in her own life following the pattern set by Mary Immaculate, the Patroness of our school. The sword represents fortitude and strength of character which will enable the student to uphold the high principles of her Catholic training received at Maria High School.

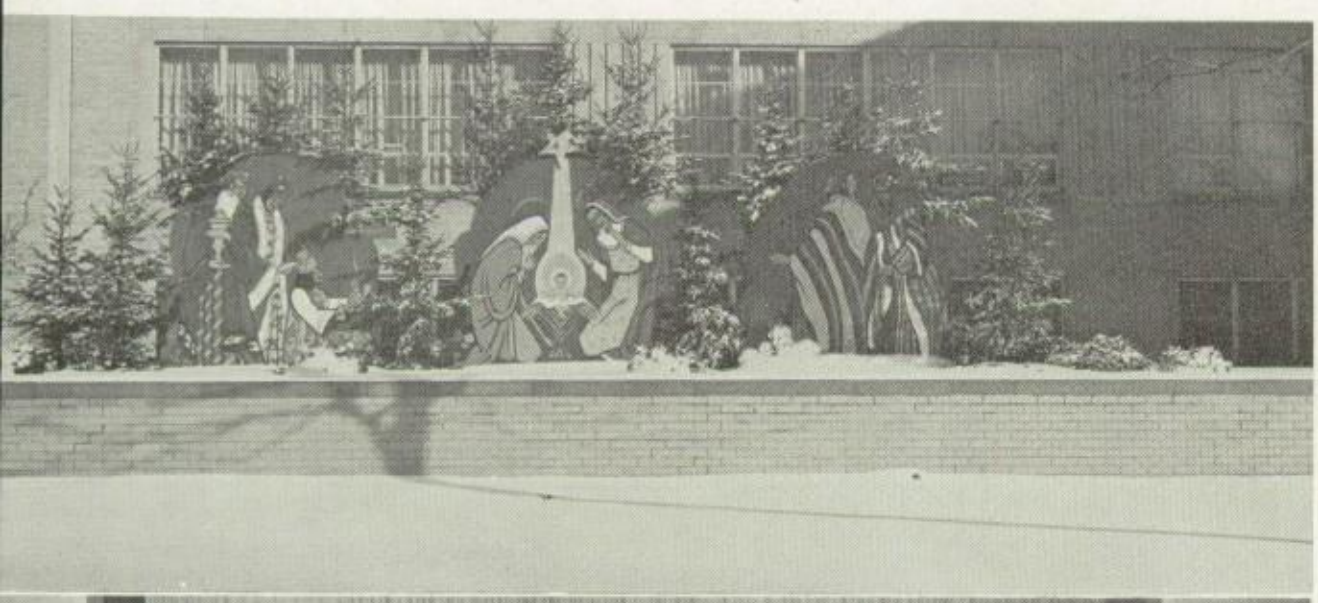
Memories of Days Spent in Going "To Jesus through Mary"

Mary Agnes Hilb, Carole Tanderak, Mary Jane Largent and Betty Hoffman "pose" a few miscellaneous questions to the retreat master, Father Godfrey Poage,



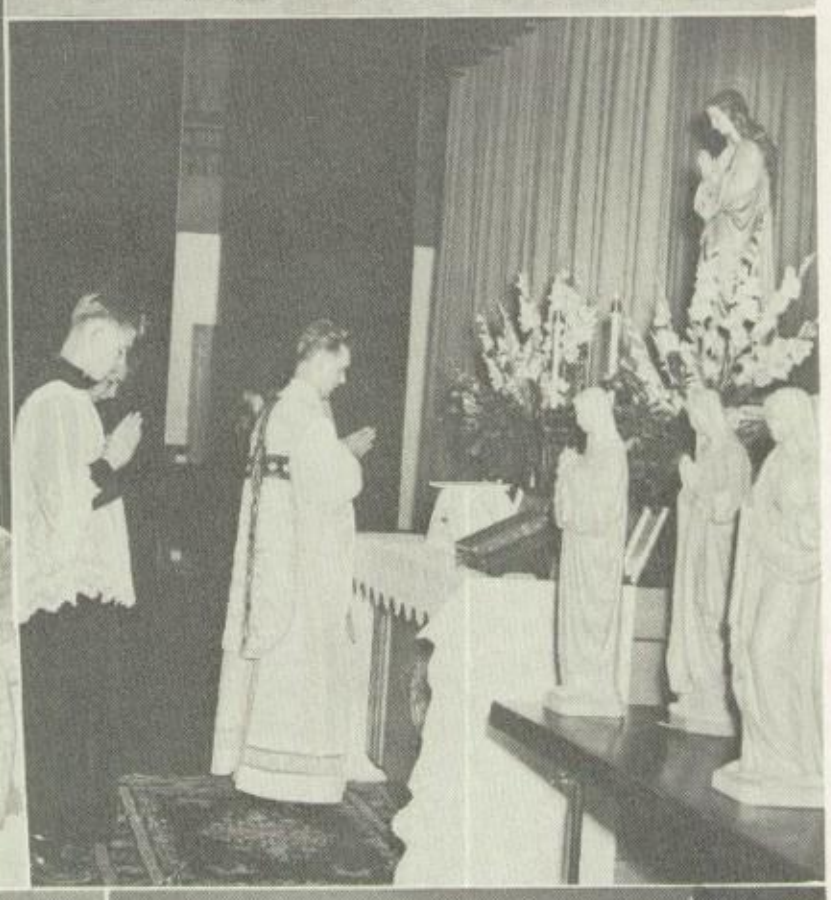
Religious

Artistic tribute to the Divine Babe in view of all during His season.

The annual retreat sends all to receive Holy Communion in a body.

Seniors in 107 "meet the Saints" by way of pictures.

Sue Cheplis, Annette Kuras, and Bertha Kanape make a trio of truth that "...'neath the Queen's white and blue," they work "for our flag, and our Faith."



Sacrificing their night in honor of the Virgin, the girls of Maria participate in the Holy Hour.

His Eminence, Cardinal Stritch, blesses a statue of Our Lady on Maria High's campus--a lasting memory of the Marian Year.

Father Malin, Chaplain, blesses hand-carved, imported, Italian statues of wood--a different kind for each of the thirty-five homerooms.

The "Pilgrim Virgin" honors and is honored at Maria.

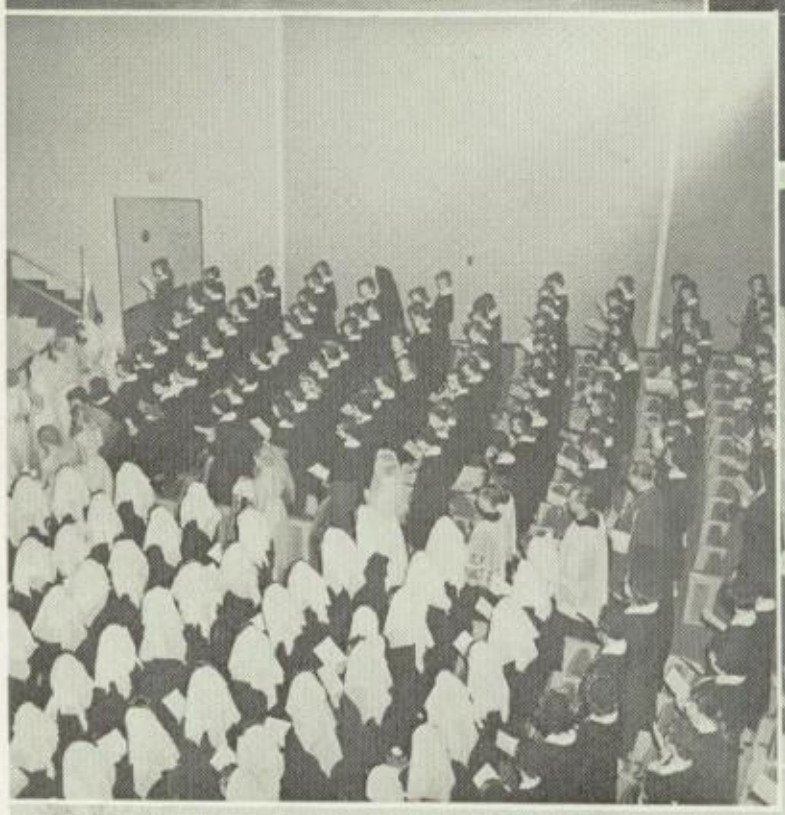
Drawing closer to Christ through Mary.

Reverend Mother M. Theophila presents cape of the candidate to Barbara Cepaitis '55 while remaining six new postulants look on.

Maria Hi—ers take the lead in beginning the close of the Marian Year.

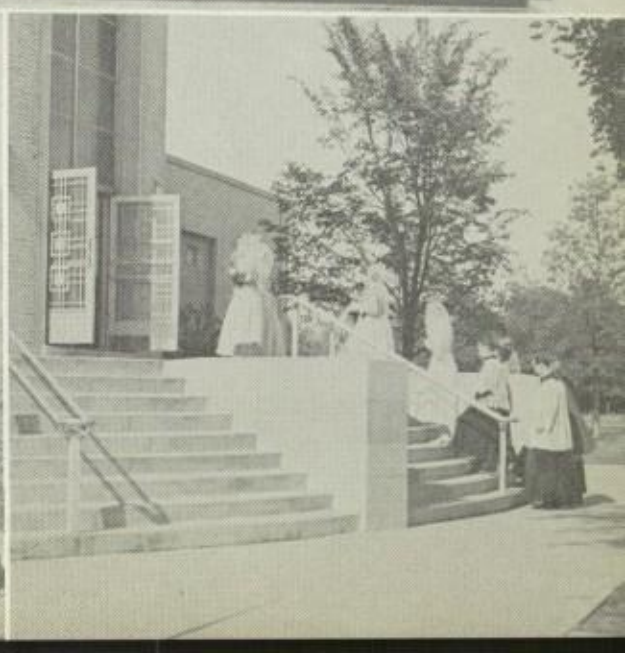
Cheerleaders of the Senior Class cheer on for a Marian World.

Sharon Niedbala and Marilyn O'Brien heed the invitation for all to come and adore Christ the Lord.



Consecration to Christ our King climaxed Catholic Youth Week in an inspiring assembly.

Ending of the school year brings on the glorious May Crowning.



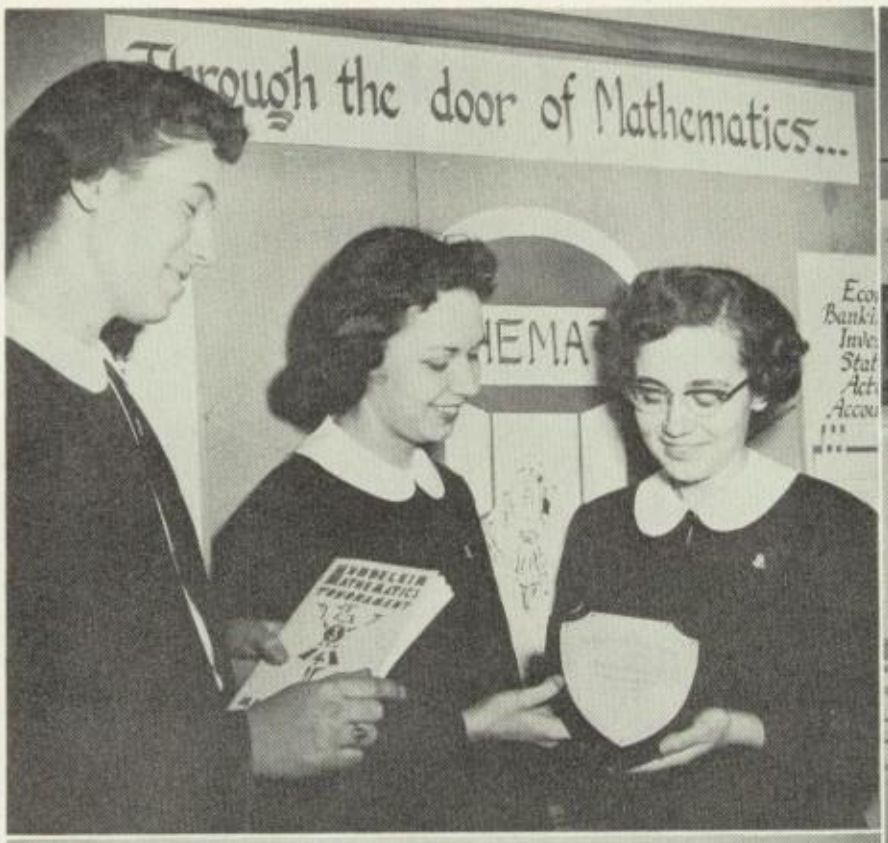
Librarian Sister M. Emerenciana shares interest in article with one of the many student visitors to the library.

Memories of Classes,

Courses, Lessons, Lectures, Majors, Minors,

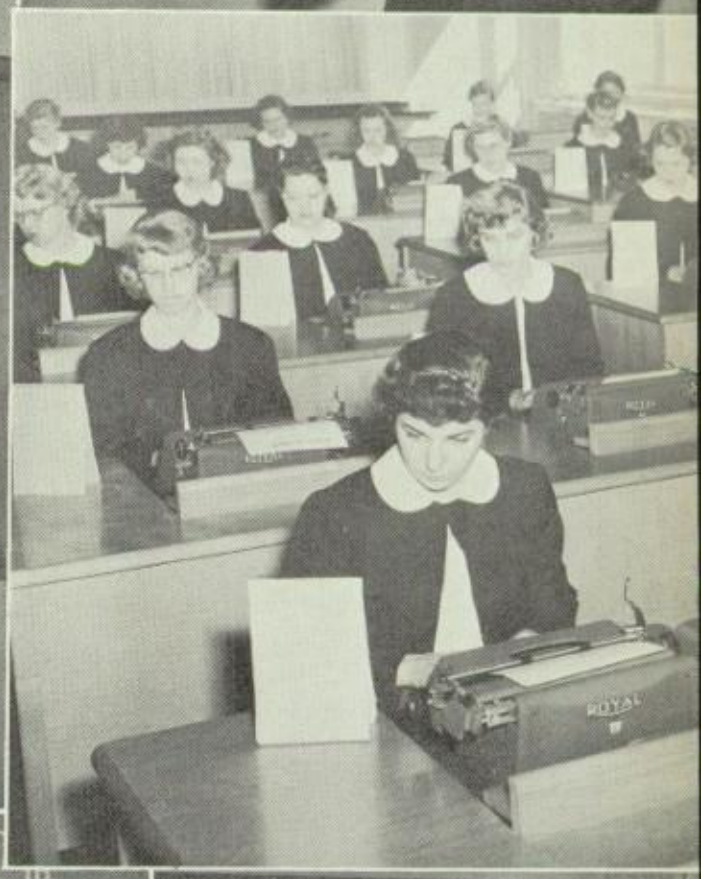
Students and Study Scholastic

Surveying mementoes of their Mundelein College Math Tournament victory are Helen Kalcsits '55, Diane Radzicki '56, and Rita Mae Wantroba '56. Rita proudly wears her second place gold medal.



Donna Brueggeman gazes in appreciative admiration at the Auxilium Latinum Trophy her talents in Latin helped to win for Maria High.

Bookkeeping students studying the proper techniques of filing income tax forms are: Lorelei Wallen, '56, Therese Wertelka '55, and La Verne Marozas, '55.



Transcribing notes proves to be a very easy and enjoyable task for the Senior Steno-Typing classes.

Jeanne Deslauriers '56 and Dolores Babkauskas '55 note the difference in the streamlining of the IBM typewriter as compared to the three generations old model brought in by Carol Gunia '58 on which Mary Guill '56 finds the position of "F".

Seniors are in a world all their own while working on the Illinois Statewide exams.

Memories of Experiments and Experiences in Science

A potential Chemist, Lois Foloky is all set for the preparation of bromine.

General Science class students set up a Soil Erosion project for the Science Fair.

Mixing pleasure with bugs and ferns, trees and leaves, brings an unforgettable day to Sisters M. Pius, Irene, Herman, Eleanor, Lucida, and Theresia, who attended the Catholic Science Teachers Camp at Camp Sagawau in Lemont, Illinois.

Facts get classed in this biology group's study of the Crayfish project for the Science Fair.

Combining efforts in a Physics class, Elaine Nowicki determines the candle power of an unknown lamp as Sandra Laase verifies distances and Rosemary Wingert records them.

Gloria Coble, Caroline Oswald and Geraldine Walski of the Clothing Class put finishing touches on their dresses.

Sharon Niedbala admires unique Valentine at Maria High, publicizing S. D. S. Modesty in dress.

Memories of Beautiful Fashions for the American Catholic Girl

Carole Jesen, '56, Queen of the S.D.S. Fashion Show in 1954, crowned this year's queen.

Showing off to best advantage the work of their classes, these Clothing students were smiling models in the annual Fashion Show.

Memories of Fine Foods Prepared in Maria's Modern Home Ec. Kitchen

Mildred Ubartas, Elaine Nowicki, Mary Esther Goyer, and Aldona Putrius cornered in the Home Ec. kitchen, help Vivian Shimkus feel proud at what's coming out of the oven.

Junior chefs prepare Christmas dainties.

Memories of Artistic Achievement

Art class members, Virginia Nawrat and Betty Nugent proudly examine works of art – gold paper mosaic-covered boxes against the mosaic Madonna and Child – work of their fellow classmates.

The Lithuanian Christmas tree at the Museum of Science and Industry is the object of the look of awe in the Lithuanian dancers' eyes.

Joan Zlotnik '57 is surrounded by her own creations in the Brotherhood Art project which featured flags and dress of all nations.

A stringing straw project produced Christmas tree ornaments of simple splendor.

Victoria Petraitis, Marilyn Williams, and Hilda Rom exhibit textile paintings and dressed-up Easter eggs as two of the Art Department's many projects.

The Verse Choir of Maria High School robed for the dramatic pageantry of "Mary's Fiat".

Memories of the Climax of the Marian Year in "Mary's Fiat"

Cast of the Vocation play "Angels of the Lord".

The Nativity Scene.

Maria's Lithuanian Folk dancers enjoy the graceful rhythm of the "Windmill Dance".

The Triumphant Assumption Tableau ends on a jubilant burst of song.

The Lithuanian Chorus relives the Nativity scene at the Museum of Science and Industry's "Christmas Around the World".

A performance of Sister M. Bernarda's choristers at Christmas time floods Lyon and Healy with carols.

"Drop it? Where—on her head?" shouts the Angel jokingly to Sister Seraphim as Sister Gregory, Sister Fidelis, and Sister Ubaldus wonder.

"Caesar, when do we cross the Rubicon." The Angel supplies a quote which causes Sister Seraphim to laugh while Sister Gregory looks on bewildered.

"I don't think you've met Sister Ubaldus (M. Verbiski) have you, Mrs. Barr (J. Pieza)?" asks Sister Gregory (L. Maka), who is accompanied by Sister Seraphim and Sister Fidelis (N. Strimel).

"Sister Seraphim there's someone in this room." Abigail (C. Locascio) suspicously questions Sister Seraphim (C. Tanderak) while the Angel (C. Styler) sits laughingly by.

Abigail upon hearing noises comes down the stairs to investigate what's happening.

"Look – it's me! Not bad-looking! Look at the Profile!" says Francie, admiring her picture in the newspaper.

Memories of Delightful, Heavenly Humor of "Career Angel"

The stage crew: V. Chuprinskas, sound effects-prompter; M. Gedmin, sound effects; N. Sweetack, prompter; J. Reiss, curtain-lighting; stand ready for the play to begin.

Memories of Maria

Mothers Club . . .

Reverend Mother M. Theophila and Sister M. Anastasia look over check from Mothers Club before St. Joseph distributes Christmas gifts to members.

Opening surprise Christmas gifts after refreshments, Mothers feel like their high school daughters at the Mothers' Club Christmas party.

Sisters M. Benetta, Lucida (Moderator) and Viatora of the Alumnae group, and Sister M. Anastasia and His Excellency Bishop Brizgys at the Christmas party with the S.C.M. Alumnae Board Members.

The four famous "chefs:" Mrs. Anella Kybartas, Mrs. Augusta Gerneris, Mrs. Helen Griksas and Mrs. Mary Miknaitis take great care and delight in preparing lunch for the girls.

. . . and S. C. M. Alumni

First of homecomings for the Class of '54 — now S.C.M. Alumnae.

Memories of Special Events and People

Mr. Ramon Swisher of the Cook County Forest Preserve Department, intrigues Biology group with unusual comments on a "furred friend".

On his annual visit to Maria, "Glacier Priest", Father Hubbard, discusses his techni-colored movie "Blue Ice".

His Excellency Bishop V. Brizgys and His Honor, Judge J. McCurrie exchange ideas with a group of Maria Hi—ers after a special TEEN TALK to the student body.

Learning a lesson on safety, seniors carefully acquire more tips as Officer James W. Casey rewinds the film of "Four Came Home."

Catholic Action is keynote of Mr. Frank Estes, distributor of Catholic literature to prisons and hospitals. Part of Maria Corps assisting him are Marilyn O'Brien, Marlene Schillaci, Joanne Parks, Sheila Fitzgerald, Judith Antelek, and Annette Kuras.

Dolores McCahill, alumna of S.C.A. and religious reporter for the Sun-Times relates personal insights of the journalistic field.

The singing priest, Reverend James Whittet impresses Seniors, Lillian Begeschke, Joanne Pieza, Betty Hoffman, and Sue Cheplis with a "score" or two.

Ruta club officers: Maria Stake, Ellen Kristolaitis, Angela Katele, and Aldona Putrius, in a brief interview with Mr. Vasiliauskas, a world renowned violinist.
